

Is a Kidney Transplant Right for You?

You should know...

- every kidney patient can be evaluated for a transplant
- you can get a transplant sooner if you have a living donor
- not every transplant center has the same rules for acceptance
- you can go to the transplant center of your choice.

If you do not qualify for a transplant now, ask your kidney doctor if the problem can be corrected.

Transplant facilities serving patients in Network 8:

Alabama

- BIRMINGHAM – University of Alabama, (888) 822-7892 or (205) 975-9200

Mississippi

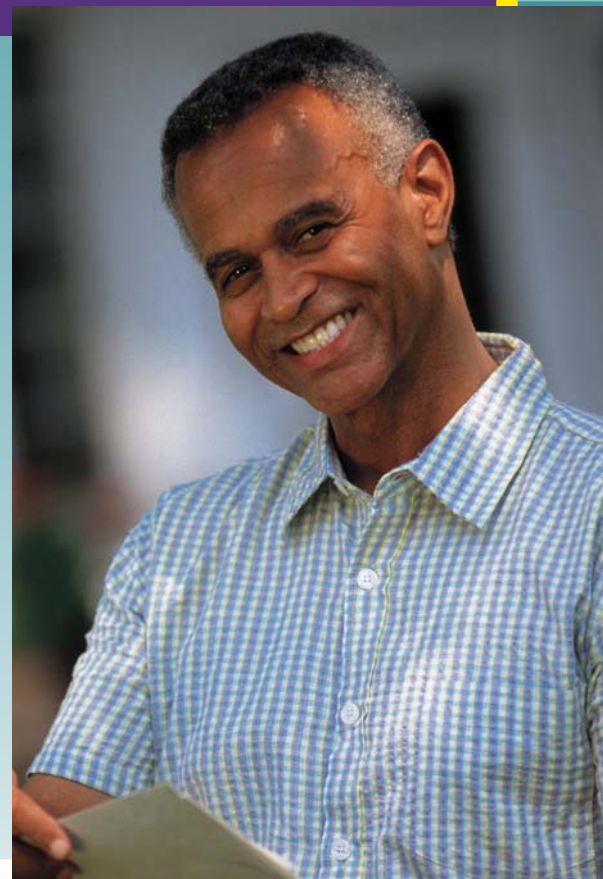

- JACKSON – University Medical Center, (601) 984-5065

Tennessee

- CHATTANOOGA – Erlanger Regional Transplant Center, (423) 778-8067
- JOHNSON CITY – Johnson City Transplant Center, (888) 906-1035 or (423) 431-6164
- KNOXVILLE – University of Tennessee, (865) 544-9236
- MEMPHIS – LeBonheur Children’s Hospital, (901) 287-5434

Tennessee cont.

- Methodist Healthcare Transplant, (866) 805-7710 or (901) 516-9183
- NASHVILLE – Centennial Transplant Center, (800) 642-4012 or (615) 342-5626
St. Thomas Hospital, (800) 456-6618 or (615) 222-6618
Vanderbilt Renal Transplant, (800) 288-5000, ext. 60695 or (615) 936-0695
Veteran’s Administration, (800) 228-4973 (TN only) or (615) 327-4751, ext. 6373

Contact your dialysis facility staff or doctor if you have questions.

